GOOD DEEDS. Angels for Hope is a nonprofit organization that collects crocheted angels, butterflies, and smiley faces from volunteers and sends them to anyone in need of hope. The website says, "We attach a small card with the angel to say to an injured or ill person, you are not alone, others do care, and you are in our thoughts and prayers." The organization collected and distributed 50,000 angels in 2005. Visit www.angelsforhope.org.
